Washington, July 14.—President Wilson, accompanied by Dr. Cary Grayson, Secret Service men, and an escort of reporters, watched Detroit defeat the Nationals today, 2 to 1. This was the first time the President appeared at a baseball game. The President appeared at the American League park, Detroit, to see the Tigers play the Nationals. Although Washington made many hits as the Tigers, reckless base-running cost them the game. Cobb failed to secure a hit, and failed to get a hit in three weeks.
